Glenwood Cemetery was the original burial ground in Collinsville and was designated an historical landmark in 2011.

William Collins, and the founders of Collinsville, pioneer families, veterans of every war from the Revolutionary War, Civil War, Mexican War, Spanish-American War, Black Hawk War, and Vietnam War are interred here making Glenwood Cemetery a reflection of the history of the community of Collinsville.

Since 1822, Glenwood Cemetery has been open to all without regard to nationality, religion or race.

If you are considering a pre-need purchase, seeking an interment space for a loved one, or making estate plans, consider Glenwood Cemetery.

Choice parcels are available, priced to fit your needs.
